Alchemer Survey

Alchemer Survey, part of the Alchemer Platform, is the most flexible, easy-to-setup and easy-to-use survey platform for departments and enterprises. For organizations that need more advanced capabilities and reporting than SurveyMonkey and don't want the cost and complexities associated with Qualtrics, Alchemer Survey strikes the perfect balance.

Its market-leading flexibility, ease-of-use, and speed-to-value lets users drive feedback collection, analysis, and outcomes on day one, without requiring multiple department modules or IT resources. We also provide unlimited surveys and questions, and we don't charge per response.

MORE QUESTION TYPES

Alchemer Survey offers 43 question types, more than anyone in the industry, so you can get the answers you need. In fact, Alchemer offers more than double the industry average, including Max Diff, Image Heatmap, Conjoint, Card Sort, and more. Additionally, Alchemer offers a Custom Question Developer Kit.

MARKET-LEADING FLEXIBILITY TO MEET ALL BUSINESS NEEDS

Whether you need surveys for customer experience, marketing, market research, product management, employee experience, or operations you'll find the features you need in Alchemer Survey. Standardize across your company and reduce headaches and cost.

NO MODULES OR PAY-PER-RESPONSE SURVEY LIMITATIONS

We don't believe in limiting the success of your programs or the feedback you collect. We don't place limitations on the number of surveys or questions, and there are no pay-per-response fees. You can also use Alchemer Survey across your organization for different purposes without paying for specific modules.

HIGHLY SECURE

We deliver a highly secure platform, powerful enough for any size organization, with ISO 27001 and SOC2 Type 2 Certifications, as well as EU GDPR compliance.
